

RED BULL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR AWARD 2021

- The Red Bull Rookie of the Year title will be awarded to the #1 ranked Rookie Athlete based on a combined score from the 2021 Rookie Rankings and results from their Best Line video submission.
- The Red Bull Rookie Rankings are comprised of an athletes' total score from their best three results from Gold, Silver and/or Bronze events in 2021. Further details are explained in the Rules & Regulations.
- Best Line video submissions allow Rookie athletes to submit a '4 best hits' video that will be combined with their Rookie Rankings to determine the Red Bull Rookie of the Year. Best Line video submissions will be judged by an FMBA approved Judging Panel.

Contest Timeline

- Rookie Rankings: January 1st, 2021 to November 30th, 2021
- Best Line Video Submissions: May 24th, 2021 at 10:00 PST to November 30th, 2021 at 23:59 PST
- ROTY Award Recipient Notified: Week of December 20th, 2021

Award / Prizing

Red Bull Rookie of the Year Award 2021

- Award Recipient will receive:
 - Wildcard entry to the first Crankworx Slopestyle event in 2022 with flights and accommodation included
 - EUR 500,- cash prize money
 - Red Bull Rookie of the Year Trophy
 - 2022 FMB World Tour License

Eligibility

- Athlete must have a current FMB World Tour License or a FMB Free Amateur License
- Athlete must not yet have competed at a Diamond event unless via Wildcard in the current 2021 season
- Athlete must be between the ages of 16 - 25 years old (as of December 31, 2021) to be eligible for participation
- Athlete cannot be a previous Red Bull Rookie of the Year award recipient

Rookie Rankings – Rules and Regulations

Athletes need to meet the outlined eligibility criteria for participation and adhere to the Rules and Regulations.

- Rookie Rankings will comprise of the total score from an athletes' best three results from Gold, Silver and/or Bronze events in 2021.
- An athlete must compete in at least one Gold, Silver and/or Bronze event in 2021 to be ranked on the Rookie Ranking.
- An athlete can compete in as many Gold, Silver and/or Bronze events in 2021, but only their best three results will be totaled and appear on the Rookie Rankings.

Best Line Video Submission - Rules and Regulations

Athletes need to meet the outlined eligibility criteria for participation and adhere to the Rules and Regulations.

- Disciplines: DJ & SS
- Athlete must register for Best Line Video Submission via the FMBA member management platform. REGISTER HERE
- Videos on which athletes want to be judged on must NOT be videos from a FMBA sanctioned competition where athletes get FMB ranking points from their regular competition results anyways
- Video runs must be a maximum length of 1min and must not contain music
- Video runs (within 1min length) should contain at least 4 consecutive tricks in one line and can contain more. '4 best hits'
- Rider Introduction must be included within the video
- Everything from the run must be seen on the video at all time - from take-off to landing - (e.g. no dead angles in landing) in order for the judges to score a run at full sight. No cuts allowed.
- Judging: an FMBA authorized Judging Panel will score the Best Line submissions to determine an overall Red Bull Rooking of the Year score.
- Rules & Regulations are subject to change.

Submission of Best Line Video

- To submit your Best Line video, please send an email to events@fmbworldtour.com with the Subject Line "Best Line Video Submission - <First Name Last Name>", including your video via a DropBox or WeTransfer link
- It's encouraged to share your videos on Instagram including the following hashtags: #RedBullROTY #BestLine #fmbworldtour #Redbullbike